Re: United States v. Miguel Ansures Almazan, S1 21 Cr. 722 (CM)

Dear Judge McMahon:

The parties understand that the Court has adjourned the upcoming conference in this matter to January 31, 2022 at 2:30 p.m., with the understanding that the defendant will likely plead guilty in magistrate court before that date. In light of the parties need for additional time to discuss a potential pretrial disposition in this matter, including the defendant's need to consult with counsel with respect to such a disposition, the Government moves for the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act, Title 18, United States Code, Sections 3161(h)(7)(A), until January 31, 2022. The exclusion of time will afford the defendant time to consult with his attorney, and will permit the parties to engage in discussions regarding the potential for a pretrial disposition. The Government respectfully submits that the ends of justice served by the exclusion of time outweigh the interests of the defendant and the public in a speedy trial. The defense consents to this application.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
